Members are additional people to which you can add new registrations. This could be a child, a spouse, or even an employee. Use the Add New Member button below to add a new member account. If the person already has an account, but it is not linked to your account as a member, please contact the office and request them to link the account to you as a member account.

For the member accounts listed below, you can register these members in the same manner you would register yourself. However, during the registration process, make sure you select the correct member account before adding the course to the cart. At the bottom of the course detail page just above the Add To Cart button is a list of all your members. Select the correct member name and then add the course to the cart. If you do not use the correct member account name, the registration will be under your name as the person taking the course.
